

Archival Materials Used

All materials used in the custom framing is archival quality.

That means anything that comes in contact with the artwork you have purchased is acid-free and pH neutral. This includes archival paper mats and printing paper and packaging materials like cardboard corner protectors, filler material and foam board.

There will be no staining or yellowing due to use of non-archival products on artwork sold from this website.